BURGUNDY 2018

Guided Tour

Guide cycling with group | 265 km | 7 nights / 8 days

Burgundy boasts perhaps the best food of any region in France, including renowned classics like frogs legs, escargot, boeuf bourguignonne, coq-au-vin, oeufs meurette – all Burgundy dishes, and naturally on this tour you'll eat like Kings. There are also the famous wines of the Côte D'Or, which you'll explore during the second half of the week.

Burgundy offers beautiful scenery, especially the lush farmland through which the Canal de Bourgogne takes us. There are other fascinating sites throughout the week: The Abbaye de Fontenay, one of the oldest and most complete Cistercian monasteries in Europe; the Hotel Dieu in Beaune, the most spectacular rood in the world, bar none!; and Chateauneuf perhaps the most beautiful village in France.

ITINERARY

DAY 1 Arrive Montbard

Our tour starts in Montbard, north of Dijon. The best way there is by train from Paris to Montbard where we arrange transfers to the Hotel De L'Ecu.

DAY 2 Montbard to Semur-en-Auxois 28 miles / 44 km

Saddled up, we head for the Abbaye de Fontenay, one of the oldest and most complete Cistercian abbey in Europe, set in a river valley so beautiful Michelin give it the maximum 3 rating. We follow the Canal du Bourgogne to Alise Ste Reine, where Vercingétorix, leader of the Gauls finally surrendered to the Romans. We follow the canal again before climbing to the beautiful walled town of Semur-en-Auxois, surrounded on three sides by steep cliffs, where we dismount at the Hotel Cymaises.

DAY 3 Semur-en-Auxois to Chateauneuf 32 miles / 55 km

Back to the canal at Marigny le Cahouet. The canal de Bourgogne has been described as the most beautiful route in France. At Pouilly – en – Auxois it disappears into a tunnel. We cycle over the hill, and down to the hostellerie du Chateau in the fairytale village of Chateauneuf. The food tonight is stunning.

DAY 4 Chateauneuf to Dijon 32 miles / 55 km

We rejoin the canal – the tow path has been converted into a beautiful cycle path passing more than fifty locks (all downhill) continuing through forests, past the Lac du Kir all the way to Dijon, where Burgundy's aristocracy shoe-horned grand town houses into strangely shaped plots alongside the buildings of ordinary Dijonnais. A chance to see the magnificent Palais des Ducs in the heart of the medieval city centre.

DAY 5 Dijon to Nuits St Georges 20 miles / 26 km

Today we follow tiny roads visiting vineyards in Marsannay and Gevrey-Chambertin, as well as Clos de Vougeot. Originally built by monks from the Abbaye de Cîteaux, the chateau is beautifully restored and home to the world-famous Confrérie des Chevaliers du Tastevin. One 12th century room contains four enormous oak presses weighing over 20 tons. We finish the day at Nuits St. Georges where we stay at the Hostellerie Saint Vincent.

DAY 6 Nuits St Georges to Beaune 16 miles / 26 km

This is a relatively short day but one with more challenging cycling as we visit the beautiful villages of Savigny les Beaune and Aloxe-Corton. Their wine lacks the prestige of its illustrious neighbors but is still high quality at its best as we'll discover at a tasting before arriving in Beaune, the centre of the Burgundy wine industry. Tonight we stay in the heart of this stunning old town at the Hotel de la Cloche. The Hospice with its magnificent roof is a 'must see'.

DAY 7 Round trip from Beaune 21 miles / 40 km

You don't even have to pack today, as we'll be returning to Beaune tonight. There are a whole series of classic wine villages running south of Beaune toward Macon and the Beaujolais region. Once again we're on tiny roads winding through the vineyards as we visit Pommard, Volnay and Meursault, home to white wines hailed as the finest in the world. From Meursault we cycle to the village of Chassagne-Montrachet, then begin our return to Beaune via tiny roads with the hills of the Côtes D'Or behind us.

DAY 8 Tour end

There is a reasonably civilised departure this morning. Beaune train station is a 2-minute taxi ride, change in Dijon for Paris Gare de Lyon (arriving approx. 12.37) for onward connections to London and Paris airports.
