North Sardinia Sportive Grand Tour

Group guided Tour 2026

Approx. 500 km | 8 days / 7 nights

Sardinia is like heaven to any keen road cyclist: the roads are perfectly paved and free from motorised traffic. This beautiful trip will take you right in the heart of the most ancient land in Europe. Among mountains sculpted by wind and sun, with its deep canyons and unspoilt forests, we discover nature in its most savage form, archaeological remains which are unique in the world and traditions with their roots lost in the dawn of history

TOUR ITINERARY

Day 1      Arrival day

Transfer or independent arrival to Olbia

Day 2      Olbia to Castelsardo

103 km ~ climb 1400m

Leaving the coast you ride inland again where forbidding peaks look down on endless expanses of ancient cork forests strewn with weird, wind-blasted granite boulders to make the scenery dramatic. We are in the heart of the island's major cork production area. Hundreds of cork businesses (sugherifici), large and small, are concentrated around Calangianus and Tempio, the two main centres of the area.

Ride past the impressive valley of the moon, consisting of amazing granite rocks shaped by the force of the weather over thousands of years to end your day back to the coast in Castelsardo, a charming village perched high up on a cape overlooking the sea.

Day 3 Castelsardo to Alghero*93 km ~ climb 1340m

The route over the rolling hills of Anglona boasts some breath-taking views over the coast and Corsica. After the adrenaline kick descent of Scala di Giocca, you reach Alghero, arguably the nicest town in Sardinia, where you can celebrate the end of this fantastic road cycling trip.

Highlights of the day:

- The rolling hills of Anglona,
- The Castle of Osilo,
- The ancient Catalan town of Alghero.

Day 4 Alghero to Mores*81 km ~ climb 1270m

The coastal road South of Alghero is one of the most scenic in the whole island and a perfect warm up for the "wall", a challenging climb leading inland towards Villanova Monteleone. After a spectacular descent over Lake Temo, it's a Mangia e bevi (Italian cycling slang defining a rolling hill terrain) all the way to Mores, passing sleepy hamlets on the way.

Highlights of the day include:

- The coastal view leaving Alghero,
- The climb towards Villanova,
- Lake Temo.

Day 5 Mores to Pattada*79 km ~ climb 1516m

This is a terrific day criss crossing the Goceano mountain chain featuring a varied stunning landscape of woods, Mediterranean brush and cultivated areas of olives and vineyards. Challenge yourself along the climb leading to Foresta Burgos, a forest founded in 1886 by royal decree and enlarged over the years. End your day in Pattada, famous for its handmade knife Pattadesa, a cult object prized by collectors all over the world thanks to its shape, durability, finish and inlays of precious stones and metals.

Highlights of the day:

- The Goceano mountain range,
- The wild and remote interior.

Day 6 Pattada to Posada*86km ~ climb 1230m

Ride East past Su Romanzesu, a great residential and cultural complex immersed in a cork oak forest with granite outcrops, representing a precious and charming legacy of the Nuragic civilization. Then back to the ocean with an exhilarating descent over Siniscola. Your base tonight is Posada, a medieval village perched on a green limestone hill dominated by the Castello della Fava, where you can enjoy the splendid panorama of the sea and the surrounding plain.

Highlights of the day:

- The stunning limestone range of Monte Albo,
- The descent towards Siniscola.

Day 7 Posada to Olbia

55 km ~ climb 300m

A short day along the turquoise waters of Capo Coda Cavallo and Tavolara, a limestone and granite imposing island that rises up from the sea, 560 metres high. Alternatively, you can go for a more challenging inland route. Both routes end in Olbia, the lively capital of Gallura that opens onto a turquoise bay and dazzling beaches.
